with Betty Allen...

This area is receiving its share of attention in the National magazines—understand that San Jose was described as the second fastest-growing city in the country in Fortune Magazine and that Aptos was written up in the last Harpers Bazaar. Campbell came in for its share of attention this week when Harrison Humphries noted that Rural Free Delivery was started in Campbell and will be 50 years old next February. At that time, the Postmaster General described Campbell as a most desirable place which had attracted "people with a high order of intelligence."

Notice that the Willow Glen Post Office had an "open house" Saturday evening. Ira Grim reports that it may be after Christmas before our post office is operating because if it is completed too close to Christmas the move will not be attempted because of the Christmas rush.

According to Pat Peabody, publisher of three county newspapers and a member of the County Grand Jury, this Grand Jury is really going to work on the matter of a new jail.

Some miscellaneous incidents overlooked in the pre-election rush: Calvin Bohnett's recent trip to Arizona and New Mexico; the broken leg of Snowball, Sheila Tordt's white Persian cat; two new real estate salesmen employed by Ray Mathis—Mrs. Eva Grattan and C. Hawkins; favorable mention in a national trade magazine on the recent gilding of the Press—an improvement on "an already excellent makeup."

Some eight years ago in San Mateo two young mothers shared a room in the maternity wing of the hospital there. They became quite well acquainted during their stay there but lost touch when they went home. One family moved to Redwood City and the other to Palo Alto and then Pacific Grove. One of the young mothers, Mrs. K. P. Farley and her family came to Campbell about a year ago and subscribed to the Press. One day she noticed the name of Mrs. Arthur Bringham in the paper and recalled it as the name of her friend of the "stork" days. She looked her up and sure enough it was the same young woman. She and her family had moved to Campbell almost at the same time the Farleys had, and their two daughters, once pals in the hospital nursery, are now in the same room at Campbell Grammar School.

A most surprised man last week was Ethan Lanphear who knew nothing about the full page advertisement bought by his friends to aid his Constable race. He's still trying to find out who the friends are.

Incorporation proceedings are at a temporary standstill while the District Attorney investigates the legality of reopening the hearing to allow property owners adjacent to the boundaries the right to be included in the area if they so desire. Incidentally the boundaries as set up adhere almost exactly to the new mail delivery boundaries.

Did you see Lowell Benson and "Dodie" Jeffers in their twin outfits last week? Very dashing and VERY striking.

That crowd at the corner of Campbell Ave. and First St. on Wednesday morning was caused by the delivery of a new Dodge truck to the Nelson Grain Co.

Property Purchased For New Schools

Campbell's new grammar schools moved one step nearer completion with the announcement from William Henley, principal, that property for the schools had been purchased following its approval by the necessary authorities.

The Miller property, consisting of 16 acres, is located between Harriet and Burrows on Pollard Road and will be accessible to Walters, Allendale and Juanita Roads.

Known as the Stonier or Ulici property, 15 acres on the south side of Moorpark Ave. have been purchased for the second school. This is 600 or 700 feet behind the County Hospital.

Site utilization plans are under way and preliminary building plans started. Application has already been made to the Federal Works Agency for money to use for planning purposes.

Franklin, Kump and Folk, of San Francisco, have been selected as architects for the new buildings.

Basket Ball League Planned

Much interest is being shown in the athletic program given by the Adult Education Department at the High School. On Monday and Wednesday evenings, those who have enrolled play badminton and other recreational games and plans are under way to form a men's and boys' basketball league.

The project will be sponsored by Campbell merchants and organizations, who hope to build up a six-team league with 40 to 50 players. This will also be a part of the adult education program.

Tuesday evening, Nov. 12, all interested men and boys are asked to meet in the High School gym to start the venture.

Sponsoring the league are: Field's Grocery, Guy Farley, Kiwanis Club, American Legion Post 596, Jones Service Station, Ben Strong and Nelson Grain Co.

Legion Post Has 14 New Members

Fourteen new members were initiated into the Campbell Legion Post No. 596, at the last Legion meeting, following a potluck dinner provided by the Legion Auxiliary. They are: Dorothy Harnish, Nora Brydon, Helmer Dosland, Stephen S. Ridgely Jr., Ainslie H. Bonds, Norman Handley, James A. Brand, Dr. John Mott, Ray S. Bonds, J. T. Rodger, Roy Zimmer, Bill Wilson, John C. Hummel and William Samford. Applications voted on and passed at the meeting were those of John C. Hummel, James A. Baird and William Samford.

The initiatory team was composed of officers of the 13th District. One of the new members, Nora Brydon, was nominated, elected and installed as historian of the Post.

Since the next regular meeting night falls on Wednesday, Nov. 13, when the PTA has scheduled Congressman Jack Anderson to talk on Bikini, members will meet at 7:15 and attend the PTA meeting at the school in a body.

ARRIVES TOO LATE

The many friends of Mrs. R. C. Page will be sorry to learn of the recent death of her father in Wichita, Kansas. Mrs. Page, who flew to his bedside, arrived a few hours after his death, having been delayed by the TWA strike. She is expected home within the next few days.

Campbell Loses To Mt. View, Plays Washington Friday

By RON LA MAR

An underdog Campbell High football squad lost a tough game to tough Mountain View last Friday night by a score of 34-6.

The game started out by the local gridsters taking Mt. View's kick off and running it down to the Eagle's one-yard line, where, with a stroke of bad luck, a Campbell fumble was recovered by Mt. View. The Eagles took it from there and went to our forty, where they kicked and Dick Gouley returned it to the 25. From there we marched it all the way down, where Dan Hill went over for the first score of the game. Turnabout being fair play, the Eagles took the Buc kickoff and tramped down to tie the score at 6-6. The convert put the Mountain View boys out in front by a point and the half ended with the score the same.

The second half was a scoring spree for the Eagles, who averaged a touchdown for every eight minutes of play during the second period. Banging through the Campbell line for lots of yardage and one touchdown was Dodson. The Eagles took to the air during the last half of the game and scored twice through the air. High scorer for the Eagles was Casella, Mountain View's speedy half-back.

Before the final gun, the Bucs were pushed for 34 points by the stronger Eagles. The Buc team is to be commended for their effort and determination against a much heavier team. The squad went in fighting every minute of play and did an excellent job against the tougher team.

This Friday's game will be played against Washington High of Centerville, there. The game starts at 3:00 sharp and the Bucs are favored to win. Sete you at the game!

Troop 31 Celebrates Halloween

Troop 31, Boy Scouts, enjoyed a Halloween costume party at the Congregational Church Wednesday evening, dispensing with the regular routine in favor of fun making. Many and varied costumes were worn by the score of scouts who attended.

Thanks to the local merchants and citizens, cider and doughnuts were served before quitting time. Games were enjoyed throughout the evening, costumes were judged and sports events slated in which all participated.

In the costume parade, Jack Applegarth carried off first honors with the most striking outfit; Gerald Gillam took second honors as a bold, brave pirate; and David Ribble was awarded the characterization prize in his portrayal of Daniel Boone. Prizes were cash awards which reverted to the patrols for the purchase of supplies and equipment.

Tiger Patrol was awarded the attendance prize of one dollar, with all eight members present to give them a 100% representation.

Scoutmaster Ted Meyer was in charge throughout the evening, assisted by committee chairman Ed Thompson and members Howard Smith, Clarence Goodrich and Dave Ribble. Mr. Thompson took several group pictures of the boys in costume.

STARTS NEW VENTURE

Mr. and Mrs. Perley B. Payne Jr. have sold their Walnut Drive home and moved to W. Rincon Ave., where they have purchased ten acres to be used for ranching and commercial pheasant raising.

Frank Steindorf Receives High Honor

Bearing the honor of being the first Santa Clara County resident to serve as director of the State Farm Bureau is Frank L. Steindorf, well-known Campbell orchardist.

Stendrof, whose ranch is on New Jersey Ave., is an experienced orchardist, and has been active in Farm Bureau affairs for many years.

He was elected to his new position at the State convention in Santa Cruz last week. The office entitles Steindorf a seat on the board of directors, of which there are eight members.

One-Stop Has New Owner

Among the businesses recently changing hands is the One Stop Restaurant, sold for the second time in its short existence. The new owner is colorful Manuel Rodriguez, known as the "one man band", who has purchased the establishment from Mr. and Mrs. Tony Entice.

Rodriguez has for the past few years played in well-known night clubs all over the country with his unique act in which he plays nine or ten instruments at once. He says he is the only man who plays a guitar with his feet.

Before taking up this work, which had been a hobby with him, he was a machinist. Enthusiastic about Campbell, he says he chose this location because he likes it better than any other part of the country he has seen. He greatly admires the Campbell schools and hopes to perform for the students soon.

The new restaurant man has three sons, all of whom served during the war. Now discharged, the oldest son, Larry, will assist his father with the business. The other sons are still in service, Benny in Germany, and Franky in Washington.

NOW COMMANDING OFFICER

Word has been received by his family that Lt. Alvin Bonds is now commanding officer of the 71st Signal Battalion stationed near Tokyo.

KANSAS CITY DESTINATION

Garland Spears, owner of the Campbell Taxi Co., will leave soon for a visit with his son in Kansas City.

ELECTED TO OFFICE

At last Saturday evening's Pomona Grange meeting, Mervyn Keesling was elected assistant steward.

VICE PRINCIPAL ILL

Miss Helen Nielsen, vice-principal at Campbell High, is hospitalized with a deep infection in her hand.

Every week a name will be drawn from our list of new subscribers and printed in the classified ad column. The person whose name appears there may receive two free passes to the Campbell Theater by calling at the Press Office. Look and see if your name is there!

Lanphear, Blaine Lead In First Unofficial Count

Community Chest Expected To Reach Goal

Campbell, as usual, will meet the quota of the Community Chest drive according to Martin Walsh, director, who reports that over $3000 is already in toward the $4000 goal.

Many solicitors have not yet reported and donations from the large companies such as Hunt Foods, the Dehydrator, Pacific Tel. & Tel. Co., the Pacific Gas and Electric Co., and others are not yet received. Walsh believes that the total of these contributions will bring the amount easily to the quota set.

Campbell is doing much better than many other valley communities and Walsh feels his workers should be heartily congratulated.

Former Resident Dies In Oakland

The many Campbell friends of the Rev. Frank C. Farr, Methodist minister here from 1920 to 1926, will be sorrowful to hear of the death of his wife last week at Merritt Hospital in Oakland. For the past few years the Farris had been making their home at Monte Toyon in Aptos.

Final rites were held yesterday morning in Santa Cruz at White's Mortuary with Dr. Joyce W. Farr of San Jose, officiating.

Fresh Fruits And Vegetables, Today And Every Day

By JOSEPHINE DECKER

Through the darkness before dawn every morning trucks and cars point their headlights toward a brightly lit and active spot in otherwise quietly sleeping San Jose. The trucks and cars belong to farmers, growers, produce merchants and your grocer or vegetable dealer who daily take to market, select and buy at the Santa Clara County Vegetable, Fruit and Berry Growers Market the fruits and fresh vegetables you will see displayed later in the day.

A five-acre site at 7th and Taylor Sts., the Santa Clara County Vegetable, Fruit and Berry Growers Market is a place of bustling activity hours before other business in the city begins.

Two long open sheds face one another across a roofed space—in the sheds 14 commission houses sell produce not grown locally. This time of year their trucks bring in yams from Dinuba, lettuce from Watsonville, casaba melons from Turlock, grapes from Fresno, apples from Washington State, and a shipment of bananas from a boat just in from Central America.

Between the sheds is space for 90 trucks and cars—here local growers park their trucks laden with home grown foods. Being transferred from farmers' trucks to grocers' cars and pick-ups are crates of crisp, snappy green celery, bright red shining tomatoes that look like Christmas balls arranged in neat rows in light wooden boxes; the luxury fruits of October, raspberries and strawber-

Judge Blaine and Constable Lanphear congratulate each other upon their re-election. As usual the Judge has just finished a tennis game.

Ethan Lanphear won his re-election as constable by a narrow margin of 65 votes over Harry Evans who had a slight lead in the primaries. Slightly less votes were cast in the Constable race than in the Justice of the Peace. Lanphear received 846 and Evans 781.

Blaine, who once owned and operated a general store here, is a familiar sight on Campbell streets where he rides his bicycle, and on the tennis courts where he is a devotee of the game. His main interest is education and he has won a reputation as a writer on that subject; he also serves on the Campbell Union High School Board of Trustees.

Appointed Constable in 1941, when Harry Evans, then Constable, was called into the service, Lanphear was re-elected in 1942, and is thus starting his second elected term. Formerly associated with the bank in Campbell and in Saratoga, he now owns and operates the Campbell Hotel. He is a member of the Kiwanis Club and is active in community affairs as well as serving on the Sanitary Board and Board of Fire Commissioners.

STORE CLOSED FOR FUNERAL

The Campbell Hardware Store was closed today in memory of Mrs. Mary E. Gerevas who died Monday in Oakland, where her funeral rites were read today. She was the mother of Col. Gerevas, and the grandmother of Norm Corvello, owners of the store.

Mrs. Gerevas who died at the age of 80 was born in Franktown, Nevada.

Whenever we vote we feel more closely the principles of Democracy, for we are actually taking part in its operation. We sense our own importance as individuals in the Democratic system and for that day go about in a glow of virtue and smugness. We have exercised our privilege and duty! Sometimes we forget that there are other privileges and duties that go with Democracy which we can carry over into all the commonplace days when we do not vote.

The principles of equality and justice, the mainstays of Democracy, can be practiced in our every day life, in the things we say and do and the unconscious way we influence others. Each one of us might contribute a tiny bit toward that "better world" if we would make Democracy a personal working plan instead of a rite saved for election days.

Polish Underground Fighter Here

By Mary Lynne Thompson

Last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Thompson of Carolyn Ave. was a most unusual visitor. He was Adam Borys, UNRRA Polish representative to the U. S. Mr. Borys is a member of the Polish Institute of Food Technology, and is in America to study methods of food processing.

A tall man, over six feet, he speaks English with a heavy accent. His left arm was paralyzed by a mortar shell received during the Warsaw Insurrection.

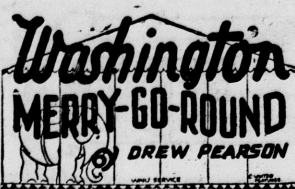

Mr. Borys was quite willing to speak of his war experiences, which were extensive. When the Germans invaded Poland in 1939, he was in the Polish army and was forced out of Poland into Hungary, where he was interned for three months. He escaped and went to France and fought with the Polish forces until France surrendered. From France he escaped across the English channel.

In England he organized with other of his countrymen and trained in underground tactics. They established radio contact with Poland and in the midst of the war parachuted into occupied Poland where he served in the underground army. He spoke of the difficulties in eliminating Nazi officers who had ordered reprisal executions. Blowing up bridges or railroads, he stated, were the simple matters.

In the Warsaw insurrection he was wounded and captured by the Nazis who sent him into Germany where poor medical care caused the loss of use of his arm. He was interned for several months until the Russians broke through and released him.

After making his way back to Poland, he married a girl who had been in his underground group. Soon after he was interned by the Polish government under Russia for being anti-Communist. After spending three months in the prison where he lost 70 pounds, he was released.

He entered the food technology field and received the opportunity through UNRRA to come to America.

REDS CONVERT NAZIS

WASHINGTON.—U. S. intelligence officials have sent the White House a highly important report on Soviet operations in Germany showing how Russians have converted large segments of the old German army to the Communist banner.

Nucleus of the new Red-Nazi army is the old German Liberation committee, organized by the Russians when they captured several thousand Nazis at Stalingrad. Field Marshal Friedrich Von Paulus, who surrendered at Stalingrad, was chairman of this committee and appealed by radio to the Nazi army in Germany during the war, urging them to desert Hitler and come over to the Russians.

Today thousands of Von Paulus's men and officers have been put through Russian indoctrination schools designed to sell them on sympathy for the Soviet and are ready to govern the Soviet zone of Germany.

Here are other salient points in the U. S. intelligence report:

1. The Russian zone is now more than twice as efficient as a productive unit as the American zone and three times as productive as the British zone.

2. The Russians are prepared to set up a government of their own in Germany if the Americans and the British set up an autonomous German government in the western part of the Reich. It will be under Von Paulus.

3. The Russians are not retaining Germans for slave labor, as generally expected. They have already sent a million and a half captured Nazis from Russia to the Soviet zone of Germany, where each has completed one year's schooling under Soviet and German communist instructors. Only a half million Germans still are being used in labor battalions in Russia. These are the leading Nazis whom the Russians know they can't either convert or trust.

The U. S. intelligence report strongly recommends against an autonomous German government in the Anglo-American zone, as proposed by Secretary Byrnes, and urges instead agreement with the Russians on the control of Germany. It points out that unless agreement is reached, Germany again will be the source of a new world war in the not too distant future.

LA GUARDIA SEES STALIN

When UNRRA Director La Guardia and aides visited Moscow on their recent tour of Europe, the entire party was eager to see Stalin. The Kremlin invitation, however, permitted only La Guardia and two other UNRRA officials to call on the top Soviet leader.

La Guardia, therefore, suggested to his aide, Joseph Lilly, that he divert the rest of the party by taking them to Lenin's tomb, where the body of the father of the Russian revolution is still perfectly preserved.

Late that night, the party reassembled, and Lilly eagerly asked La Guardia what he had learned from Stalin. Replied Fiorello:

"I got as much out of Stalin as you did out of Lenin."

NO MONEY FOR FINLAND

Finland has been known to Americans as the little country which always paid its debts. Now, however, the U. S. is getting the reputation among Finns as a country which breaks its financial promises.

What happened is that a year ago Finland sent a trade delegation here to arrange for a 70 million dollar loan from the Export-Import bank. The loan was promised, and on the basis of this promise, the Finns made purchases amounting to 35 million dollars in the United States, with partial commitments for the remaining 35 million dollars.

Part of the deal was that Finland was to secure coal from this country, which in turn would help increase her newsprint production. Many American newspapers made arrangements to buy this extra newsprint.

However, something has caused the State department to reverse itself. The Export-Import bank loan to Finland has been held up.

ADMIRAL HALSEY GETS BORED

Admiral William (Bull) Halsey

Campbell Court Notes

By JUDGE BLAINE

Hallowe'en, shortly after 10 o'clock, two young veterans of World War II called on the Campbell judge to complain that two officers from the sheriff's office were trying to push them around. They had been two of a group standing in our post office block talking. All in the group, they said, were young veterans. The officers had demanded that they all go home.

They asked, "Is there any curfew law in this county? The officers said there is. What's the truth?"

The judge didn't know of any Santa Clara County curfew law. He called up the sheriff's office. The man who answered didn't know of any such law, either. But the office man said, "I'll send the deputies up to you."

The sheriff's radio brought the deputies in about five minutes. One seemed positive that a curfew law exists. The other was doubtful. As the conversation progressed both became doubtful. Finally it became rather evident that the curfew idea had been an attempted bluff. The officers justified this attempt by the needs of the special evening. How could they disperse groups otherwise?

The judge said, "What is more human than the desire to stand and talk with friends? What is more human than resentment at being pushed around?"

The veterans left, the officers left, the judge later walked up town. All was quiet except auto traffic. The taxi man said that the young veterans had concluded their visiting with each other and gone home. When ready they had dispersed of their own accord, after asserting their American independence.

It was in a popular talk on psychology that a lecturer in this town said, "Nobody likes to be pushed around." The statement seemed inclusive. But there may be an occasional exception. The Campbell judge would appreciate getting a letter from the rare person who likes to be pushed around.

Law enforcement, in the opinion of the Campbell judge, is not rightly a project of pushing people around. One of the deputy sheriffs said, "I admit that it's better to get cooperation."

sociation which continues to operate as a cooperative enterprise. In order that housewives may select from a wide variety of fresh foods this early morning bustle and trading goes on every day. Gradually the grocers' cars drive away, the two-tiered vegetable trucks gay with small awnings and a slowly swaying branch of bananas start off on their city rounds and the growers' trucks leave empty to return laden tomorrow.

It is quieter now, janitors are picking up vegetable trimmings and a late buyer stops to select from a great pile of golden orange pumpkins—Jack o'lanterns rakish and gaudy, waiting for their faces.

CANCER SOCIETY MAKE COUNTY PLANS

Mrs. Virginia Nelson, State Field Director of the American Cancer Society, and Mr. Ralph G. Wales, executive director, paid a visit to San Jose to discuss with Mrs. A. B. McSweeney, County Commander, the problems and needs for Santa Clara County.

Dr. Lydia L. Verburg, County Educational Director, has outlined an extensive program to be used by the general public and to be used in the schools; radio programs, motion pictures, exhibits and literature will acquaint the public with all the services of this society.

is beginning to fidget in his new job on the President's super-advisory board of five-star army-navy officers. Since his semi-diplomatic mission to South America, Halsey had little to do. Privately, the tough little skipper hankers to take that job as vice-president of Pan American Airways which is still open to him. He isn't interested in the extra money. His sparkplug temperament craves action, in or out of the Navy.

ENGLISH CLUBS

Mrs. Stuart, eighth grade teacher and coordinator, reports that the first teachers' meeting was held Oct. 8. The highlight of the meeting was a very fine lecture given by Mrs. Esther Johnson, school nurse on "Health in Our School". Cleanliness was stressed throughout the speech. She also demonstrated the use of the eye and ear machine to the teachers.

All of Mrs. Stuart's eighth grade English classes have organized their Good English Clubs. Several interesting meetings have been held in each class. The officers are as follows:

L 8 1—Kenneth Stuckey, president; Marlene Strong, secretary.

L 8 2—Joe Williams, president; Sherrill Chamberlain, secretary.

L 8 3—Alexander Cteovich, president; Barbara Shockley, secretary.

Mrs. Stuart is very proud of her fine eighth grade classes and hopes she will have classes next year just as fine as these classes.

—Barbara Butt, High 8th.

FOURTH GRADE NEWS

Mrs. Davidson's class is studying Indians. They are making boats and having Indian fire drills. They made papooses and Indian chief. They also made spoons and strings of wampum.

They are going to have a council fire at Mrs. Davidson's ranch. With Mrs. Smith's class they are going to perform Hallowe'en dances and songs in the auditorium.

—Howard Wynne, High 8th.

HALLOWE'EN IN MISS HASSLER'S ROOM

There are penmanship papers on the bulletin board now, and if they are any indication of how the children will write later, I'm sure the teachers will have no trouble reading their writing. There is also a poster warning the children not to run out from between parked cars. I think more of us should be reminded of it.

In nature study the children are doing many things. They have three or four caterpillars now spinning cocoons. They also have a spider and a rattle from a snake. A few days ago the children went outside and blew dandelion seeds around to see how they were planted.

—Yvonne Shuart, High 8th.

Campbell Grammar School is going to have a Junior Red Cross Council. One member will be elected from each grade. This group will meet every two weeks to discuss work to be done by the Junior Red Cross. The first meeting was held Thursday, Oct. 31, at 11 o'clock. Miss Jo Wagner of the Junior Red Cross headquarters met with the council at their first meeting. Mrs. Saverker is the sponsor for our council.

—Marcia Ward, Low 8th.

STUDYING MEXICO

Miss John's room is starting to study Mexico. They are learning some Mexican songs and are going to take an imaginary ocean trip around the world. Their first stop is Mexico. They will learn some Mexican words and learn how to do Mexican dances. Miss Johns has posters hanging in her room and has drawn a beautiful Mexican picture.

—Anita Leonardo, Low 8th.

SHOP NEWS

Mr. Ziegler has no class this year; he is teaching shop and is doing a very good job. Mr. Ziegler has in the shop a new electric saw which works much better than the old one. He says the new seventh grade is doing very good work. They are making tie racks.

Greeks Are Getting Relief

Hearing the rumble of motors the other day, then the screech of brakes, six starving families in different parts of Greece rushed outside. There, in front of each of their homes, stood a Greek War Relief truck, attendants unloading a package.

They knew what it was—a GWRA food package—35 pounds of good, nourishing American food. Their neighbors had told them all about how Greek-Americans and American friends of Greece are speeding GWRA food packages to destitute Greek families.

And right on top of each and every box was the name of Mr. E. Vatheot, Main St., Watsonville, California. He was one good American who could not forget the suffering of the heroic Greeks who withstood for months single-handed the vicious assault of the Nazi armies.

Vatheot had heard how GWRA stood ready to deliver, within a matter of hours, desperately needed $12.75 food packages to the needy people of Greece. All he had to do was deposit his money with Greek War Relief Association, specify the family or families to whom the food was to be delivered—presto, starving Greeks were soon blessing his name.

Observers report that Greek War Relief offers the cheapest, fastest delivery of food that can be obtained. And the cost of a 35-pound package, $12.75, covers everything, purchase, packing and shipping.

Many people wonder how GWRA gets food to Greece so rapidly. Actually the association buys thousands of packages at a time and ships them to Greece. There they are stored in immense stock piles where they await daily cabled orders from GWRA's New York office. No time or motion is wasted. With the placing of orders, the food is almost instantly on its way.

This is GWRA's answer to the devastating starvation running rampant in Greece. Unbiased people say that this is the one constructive method of helping to rehabilitate the Greek nation.

Each item of food in the packages has been selected with great care by American dietary experts. Nutritionists state that not only is the 35 pounds of food suited to Greek tastes, but that it will feed an average family of from 6 to 8 persons for almost two weeks. Such a family's starvation diet is raised from 900 calories per person daily to more than 1250 calories per person.

The grammar school boys have just finished soccer ball and are now starting basketball. We hope to have a pretty good team this year. The Campbell Grammar School plays only county schools near here.

'Duchess of Malfa' Playing This Week

This week an elaborate production of an Elizabethan melodrama, "The Duchess of Malfi", is playing Tuesday, Nov. 5, through Saturday, Nov. 9, in the Speech and Drama Department Little Theater at San Jose State College.

Mr. Wendell Johnson, art director of the Speech and Drama Department, who has designed the settings for more than 50 productions in the San Jose State College Theater, said that "The Duchess of Malfi" is the Speech and Drama Department's most ambitious production for many years.

Johnson has developed his design from a formal arrangement of three Roman arches 18 feet high. There are four settings and six scenes which are used interchangeably with the tall graceful arches.

To keep the play moving without interruption, Johnson has incorporated the whole front wall of the auditorium into his design with an Elizabethan forestage extending into the auditorium where scenes are played while sets are changed on the main stage.

There are more than thirty students working on the technical problems of the production, under the supervision of technical director James Lioi of the department staff.

Miss Marie Carr, also a faculty member, in charge of the costuming, said that the soft cool colors of the sets will provide an excellent background for the costumes which are brilliant in color and lavishly ornamented.

"The Duchess of Malfi" is a story of a young widow who wishes to remarry but is violently opposed by her two brothers. The role of the Duchess is played by Betty Jones of San Jose, her two brothers by Del Carlson of San Jose and Milt Brietzke of Sacramento. Assistant Professor James Clancy who directs the production, plays the part of Bosola, the villain.

Poor Henry! He is a right good fellow—helpful, but at times inclined to be careless. He just wasn't thinking on all cylinders when he tried to put in a dinky light globe in the kitchen fixture. But the missus knows that plenty of good shadowless light is needed in the kitchen. And the dim small light is actually dangerous. It could be the cause of nasty burns and cuts.

It will be helpful to the well-meaning Henry in your home if you keep a supply of right-size lamp bulbs on hand for replacement of burn-outs. Just as a reminder—why not check on lamps and lighting fixtures throughout your home and make sure the right-size lamp is in the right place—bright and new and full of light. USE VEGETABLES, CHEESE TO SERVE FOR MEAT DISHES

Certain combinations of vegetables and cheese taste as if there were meat in them. Serve foods like this often if you find meat is scarce.

MEAT SAVERS

When the meat supply is lean, every homemaker is confronted with the very acute problem of what to serve as a main dish. This becomes an acute problem when the men folk of the family require heavy foods that are both tissue building and satisfying.

Fortunately there are many dishes that may be made with little meat that satisfy these requirements. Then too, if you have a dish with plenty of cheese, poultry, eggs or fish, this may be substituted for the main dish without any qualms as to whether it's really good for the family.

When you do have meat, make the most of it. First, do not shrink it by cooking at too high a temperature; and second, cut off every edible piece and use it wisely.

When you make anything that contains cheese, use a moderate temperature if you want the dish to be palatable, as a high temperature makes cheese stringy and tough.

BAKED CHEESE AND HOMINY

1 tablespoons butter or substitute
1 tablespoon flour
1 cup milk
1 cup grated cheese
1 teaspoon paprika
1 teaspoon salt
2 cups cooked hominy
1 cup buttered bread crumbs
Melt butter, blend in flour, then add milk slowly, cooking until thickened. Add cheese, paprika and salt. Place hominy in buttered baking dish and pour sauce over it. Cover with crumbs. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 20 minutes.

ONE-DISH MEAL

(Serves 6)
1 pound raw, smoked ham or cooked leftover meat
1 pound cheese
1 green pepper, chopped
6 ounces fine noodles
1 1/2 cups water
1 teaspoon salt
1 can mushroom soup
Put ham, cheese and green pepper through a food chopper. Add noodles, water and salt with soup to meat and cheese mixture. Pour into a well greased casserole and bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 1 hour. Keep casserole covered.

(Note: 1 cup of medium white sauce may be used in place of the soup.)

LYNN CHAMBERS' MENUS

*Broiled Eggplant and Stuffed Tomatoes
Creamed Potatoes
Sliced Cold Meat
Jellied Fruit Salad
Biscuits with Honey
Caramel Pudding Beverage
*Recipe given.

Leftover meat can be stretched in any number of ways, but one of the best methods is to cream it and add vegetables. Leftover meat tends to dry readily even though it is wrapped when refrigerated, and may sauce, tomatoes or other liquid that is added will make it savory and juicy.

CREAMED VEAL

(Serves 6)
7 medium-sized potatoes
1 cup milk
1 egg, well beaten
1 teaspoon salt
1 tablespoon butter
2 cups cooked, diced veal
1 cup medium white sauce
Paprika
Parsley
12 small, cooked carrots

Peel and boil potatoes until tender. Drain and mash. Add milk, egg, salt and butter. Whip until smooth and fluffy. Form mashed potatoes into a circular border on a well oiled baking sheet, using a pastry tube or a cookie press. Brown in a hot oven (450 degrees). Transfer to a large platter. Fill the center with the veal which has been mixed with well-seasoned white sauce, thoroughly heated. Garnish with paprika, parsley and carrots.

LIVER FRICASSEE

(Serves 8)
1 pound liver, sliced
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup flour
1/2 cup bacon fat
1 cup canned tomatoes
3 medium green peppers, chopped
6 small onions, chopped
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1/2 teaspoon poultry seasoning
3 cups cooked noodles

Four boiling water over liver. Let stand 5 minutes. Drain and wipe dry. Dredge liver with salt, pepper and flour. Add vegetables and water. Add celery salt and poultry seasoning. Cover and simmer very slowly for 45 minutes. Serve with hot, buttered, seasoned noodles.

A dish that is lovely to serve for luncheon is this one, using two favorite vegetables. It's mighty filling too!

*BROILED EGGPLANT AND STUFFED TOMATOES

(Serves 6)
Choose 6 firm, ripe tomatoes. Cut a slice from the top of each tomato and remove part of the centers. Mix chopped tomato pulp with 1/2 cup chopped, ripe olives, 1 1/2 cup soft bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon grated onion, 1 beaten egg and seasonings. Fill tomato shells with this mixture. Bake in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 20 minutes.

In the meantime, saute breaded eggplant slices in butter. Serve baked tomatoes on top of eggplant slices, topped with cheese sauce made as follows: melt 6 ounces of a creamy processed American cheese in top of double boiler. Stir in 1/2 cup of milk.

Meat loaf made with vegetables offers tasty fare for meat-saving days. If all of the meat loaf is not used for dinner, it may be chilled and used for luncheon sandwiches.

Salad plates of fish and eggs are another meat saver. Prepare them attractively and the family will never think of missing the meat.

VEGETABLE MEAT LOAF

1 1/2 pounds hamburger
1 onion, sliced
1/2 cup bread or cracker crumbs
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1 egg
1 cup milk
1 cup finely shredded carrots
1 cup mashed potatoes
1 cup finely shredded cabbage
Mix all ingredients together in order given. Bake in a loaf pan in a moderate (350 degree) oven for 1 hour.

NEW RESIDENTS ENJOY HALLOWEEN VISITORS

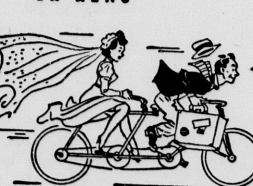

Mrs. R. L. Brown and her sister, Mrs. Bartholomew, who are new Campbell residents, from Eastern Oregon, enjoyed the trick-or-treaters who visited them on Halloween night. Mrs. Brown says that 96 children ranging in age from kindergarten to high school, called during the evening in fanciful and colorful costumes.

They were invited into the house and contributed entertainment to earn their treats. Some or all of each group either sang or performed stunts. Kindergartners sang Halloween songs and did tap dancing, while the older groups offered acrobatic stunts, rollicking songs and high school yells.

Spotlight

By Mary Lynne Thompson

Somewhere in the Indian Territory of the Midwest George Elliot Jeffers was born on Oct. 22, 1896. His parents were from Illinois, and he had one sister. Mr. Jeffers attended school in Missouri.

A popular pastime among young men when he was a boy was that of hitching rides on trains. Mr. Jeffers liked to see how far he could go on a train without a ticket and traveled over many of the southern States and several times in California in that manner. He recalls that girls dressed as boys often "rode the rails".

In 1926 when he came to Campbell his intent was to become a poultry farmer. He had done farming, raising thoroughbred heifers in Kansas, and wanted to continue farming. But he and chickens didn't agree, and in 1928 he started working in Field's store. Here he remained until just last week when he bought half interest in Benson's cleaning and men's wear establishment.

Married to Eliza Burdick of Kansas he has two children, Elaine and Rex. He counts Boy Scout work as his hobby now.

PILGRIM FELLOWSHIP RETREAT

Twenty-five members of the High School Pilgrim Fellowship of the Campbell Congregational Church recently enjoyed a retreat at Monte Toyon, a church camp near Aptos. The group left Campbell Saturday morning, Oct. 19, and returned the next afternoon. The program for the following year was planned and worship services were held.

The group meets every Sunday evening at 6:30 in the church. Plans are being made to form both junior high school and college groups. Any one interested will be cordially welcomed.

BIRDS, BUT NO BLOWOUT THIS TIME

By Dudley Herschbach Scout Reporter

Three Scouts of Troop 36, Moreland, accompanied by James Peterson, enjoyed a successful bird trip to Alum Rock Park last Sunday afternoon.

The boys are working on their bird study merit badge and Mr. Peterson is serving as their counselor.

If you read my recent account of another trip entitled "Birds or Blowouts", you will be glad to know that although the same car was used the Scouts had no difficulties. (The previous trip ended in two blowouts and one "flat"!)

After spending three hours at Alum Rock during which they identified many birds, climbed mountains, and fell over cliffs, the party left for home, stopping at a duck farm on Story Road to add several species of wild ducks to their lists.

The bird study merit badge requires among several other requirements a list of 40 birds, each personally identified. The Scout must tell how to distinguish the birds on his list from others with which they might be confused. It also requires a list of the greatest number of species seen in a week, the building of bird houses and feeding stations, and a reading list of helpful and harmful birds.

Harry Pankoski, Bobby Sunzeri and Neil Phillips were the Scouts. Neil lent variety to the outing by tumbling down a cliff; while Harry identified the greatest number of species (35) among the boys.

WEST'S PREMIER LIVESTOCK SHOW AT COW PALACE WILL BE THRILLING SPECTACLE

That the Grand National Livestock Exposition, Horse Show and Rodeo in San Francisco's big Cow Palace Nov. 15 to 24 will be the largest and most comprehensive exposition of the kind ever held in the West became a foregone conclusion today as the extensive plans and preparations swung into their final phase of completion.

For the thousands of spectators and participants who pour into the 54-acre exposition park there will be an inspiring and animated sight. The Cow Palace itself will be ablaze with colorful decorations carried out on a mammoth scale. A dozen huge circus tents will occupy the adjoining areas and 12 thousand square yards will be occupied by open pens for the display of feeder animals.

In the exhibit area there will be assembled the cream of the flocks and herds of 25 western States and Canada. With Oct. 16 set as the closing date, entries have already been received from more than half the States in the Union. Here will be a rare opportunity for recreation, relaxation and education. No pains are being spared to insure the comfort and convenience of exhibitors and spectators. Information booths will facilitate the sightseeing. Two large cafeterias and a "Sky Room" restaurant and numerous refreshment stands will be open to the public. Ample and convenient parking space will be available.

From the time the gates swing open in the morning until closing time there will not be a dull moment. During the day there will be stock judging and auction sales in the many divisions, as well as the opportunity to inspect the almost endless display of cattle, swine, sheep and horses. Each evening there will be the combined horse show, rodeo and circus attractions, with matinee performances Nov. 16, 17, 22, 23 and 24. Lovers of show horses will have an opportunity of seeing the blue-blooded aristocrats of foremost stables of America in action in the ring. Rodeo champions of the Nation will assemble for the "play-off" where the national winners will be picked. Interspersing the horse show and rodeo events will be a series of top flight circus thrillers assembled from the Nation's best circuits.

With a total of $108,170 in prize awards, the Grand National takes its place as one of the five recognized national livestock exhibitions.

It's Up To You to Profit By the Experience of the Past Twenty-Six Years!

In 1918 World War I was done, and difficult times followed during which millions of people wished they'd been more careful of their cash. Then World War II brought in its wake new threats of inflation and the temptation of heavy spending. Well, Monday is Armistice Day; a day for remembering many things—among them that your purchase of United States Savings Bonds now can help beat down inflation and give you a better future than followed World War II.

Attractive dishes in the well-known dew drop and star pattern have just been unpacked at The What Not. In white or green these dishes may be used individually for bon bons or as a set for salad or dessert plates. Round paper weights of solid glass with white on the outside and colored centers or solid colors are different looking with tiny bubbles scattered throughout. New and different are the smoking sets with ash tray and cigarette container mounted on a wooden standard. On a pedestal is a balancing man who rocks back and forth in perpetual motion.

Men, you may have your sweaters made to order in any style, color, weight or size by stopping at Benson and Jeffers and being measured. A large number of Christmas gifts such as ties, colored or white handkerchiefs, bill folds, gloves, socks, and tie clips, are now on display.

"Tussy with Love" sets designed especially for Christmas gifts come in different set combinations as well as individually. Each container has a bright holiday scene which gives these gifts a special festive appearance. The large set includes powder, bubble bath and cologne, while one of the smaller sets has cologne, red heart-shaped soaps, and dusting powder. There are also "Safari" and "Be Mine" sets and individual products. "Youngtime", the new cologne created especially for teen agers, now being displayed by Clark's should interest the younger set.

The supply of print dresses available at the Dresser Drawer has just been increased. They are of bright colors and come in sizes 6-12 and several styles. Cardigan coat sweaters in blue, green, and red, are also on hand.

Stock at the Campbell Hardware is being unpacked daily. Boys may now put Daisy air rifles on their Christmas lists. Three makes of presser cookers are available, one of which is the National Presser Canner. The much asked for small electric roasterettes have arrived. Good news for the handy men is the fact that metal window screen is now available.

A gift that is always appreciated is a handkerchief. You should see the large variety at Rachel's! There are Swiss, Chinese, and Madiera. Some are white with pastel flowers around the edges, others are all white with embroidery in the corner. The printed type with scalloped borders, the colored ones, and the white and colored with stitching to give an applique affect are all attractive. Ask to see the new distinctive cream sachet, lovely to include with a gift of handkerchiefs.

ORDINANCE NO. 269

AN ORDINANCE TO RESTRICT THE ISSUANCE OF BUILDING PERMITS TO CONSTRUCTION UNDERTAKEN PURSUANT TO THE VETERANS EMERGENCY HOUSING ACT OF 1946, AND OTHER LAWS AND REGULATIONS AND ORDERS RELATING TO THE VETERANS EMERGENCY HOUSING PROGRAM.

THAT WHEREAS, the National Emergency created by the war between the United States with Japan and Germany has not been terminated; and

WHEREAS, there is a serious and acute shortage of dwellings in the County of Santa Clara, and also a scarcity and shortage of materials for the construction of buildings for veterans in the County of Santa Clara; and

WHEREAS, the Federal Government has undertaken, through the Civilian Production Administration, to control and regulate the erection and alteration of buildings and the procurement of building materials; and

WHEREAS, it is the desire of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara to cooperate with the above-named agencies to the end that the federal regulations may be properly enforced;

NOW, THEREFORE, the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara do ordain as follows:

SECTION 1: That no person shall erect or construct, or proceed with the erection or construction, of any building or structure, nor add to, enlarge, alter, repair, move, convert, extend or demolish any building or structure, or cause the same to be done, without first obtaining a building permit therefrom from the Building Inspector of the County of Santa Clara so to do. No county building permit shall be issued without prior presentation of a permit, approval of other proper authorization of a federal agency empowered to issue the same, where the law or regulations of said Agency require such permit, approval or other authorization.

SECTION 2: This ordinance is hereby declared to be an emergency measure necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health and safety, and shall take effect immediately upon its passage and shall remain in effect during said emergency and until repealed. The following is a statement of facts constituting such emergency:

That the National Emergency created by the War between the United States with Japan and Germany has not terminated. Many veterans of said war and members of their families have come to the County of Santa Clara, State of California, to make their homes in said county; that there is a serious and acute shortage of dwellings in said County of Santa Clara, and that there is also a scarcity and shortage of materials for the construction of buildings for such veterans in said county; that numerous buildings and structures are about to be constructed in said county other than homes for veterans, thereby depriving veterans of the use of building materials for their homes.

SECTION 3: If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, or phrase of this ordinance is for any reason held to be unconstitutional, such decision shall not affect the validity of the remaining portions of this ordinance. The Board of Supervisors of Santa Clara County hereby declares it would have passed this ordinance and each section, subsection, clause, or phrase thereof irrespective of the fact that any one or more sections, subsections, clauses, or phrases shall be declared unconstitutional.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Santa Clara, State of California, on the 4th day of November, 1946, by the following vote:

FIRE HAZARDS

The Law Enforcement Committee of the County Grand Jury has recently conducted an investigation of a considerable number of typical popular eating, drinking and dancing establishments located outside incorporated areas and in some cases outside organized fire districts.

They found in many instances dim lighting, flimsy decorations, crowded floors and a lack of properly located exits. The report says:

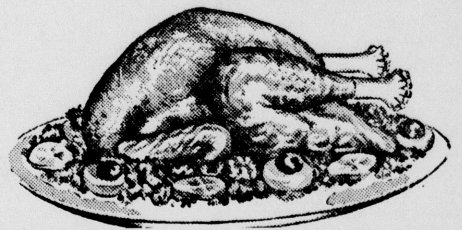

"Our opinion that the Cocoanut Grove disaster in Boston, can very easily be re-enacted in our own County at any moment, has been verified by conferences between our committee and representatives of the State Fire Marshal's office."

"In the interest of public health and safety the committee met with the Board of Supervisors early in July and recommended that they remedy this dangerous situation by immediate appointment of qualified county officers or by requesting inspection and enforcement of existing laws by the State Marshal."

CORRECTION AGAIN

Mrs. Harry Evans wants last week's "correction" corrected. In the correction last week of a previous item, the "r" was inadvertently omitted from her first name making it read Jean May instead of the correct name, Jean Mary.

"Tarzan and the Leopard Woman", coming next week to the Campbell Theater, as others in the series, tells a story of jungle adventure which abounds in suspense and action. There are exciting shots of leopards, crocodiles and snakes which should please followers of the Tarzan films. The cast is headed by Johnny Weissmuller, as Tarzan, the jungle man with the super-human physical strength; Brenda Joyce, as Jane, and Johnny Sheffield, as Boy. Acquafetta portrays the leopard tribe's priestess.

While Tarzan, Jane and Boy, accompanied by Cheta, the educated chimpanzee, are visiting in the jungle village, they learn that a merchant caravan has been attacked by leopards and that all but one of the men were clawed to death. Tarzan realizes that leopards do not kill solely by their claws and learns later that a misguided tribe of natives, wearing leopard skins and iron claws, were killing these white men. Tarzan and his family are taken prisoners by the tribe and are about to be murdered when rescued by the chimpanzee. The hero starts a landslide which buries the leopard men in their hiding place.

The story by Carroll Young, based on Edgar Rice Burroughs' characters, gives Tarzan ample opportunity to demonstrate his skill. Sol Lesser, the producer, has made an adventure film studied with exciting situations.

CLEANING, LAUNDRY PRICES MAY GO UP

Authority has been delegated to OPA field offices to issue area orders increasing the existing ceiling prices for laundry and dry cleaning services where it is shown that higher costs are causing financial hardship, the Office of Price Administration announced last week.

This authorization, effective

Oct. 9, 1946, will permit regional and district OPA offices to adjust ceilings in areas where there are specific dollar-and-cent area ceilings and also in those localities where March, 1942, ceilings are still in effect.

No change is made in existing ceilings until an order is issued by the field office, OPA emphasized. All such area adjustments must be pre-cleared with the national office.

OPA said no estimate could be given on how much of an increase would be allowed. The amount of the increase would depend on the extent of cost increases in the area concerned and the degree of financial hardship being experienced.
